meant an honest appraisalment. I feel sure that the appraisers cannot make it less than $15, or we will say as a compromise $12.50 an acre. Now much as it is desired to get these immigrants here, for I feel that they are a fine class of people, we owe something to the public here and we must obey the law. People right here might with justice say, if we let these people have it for $5 an acre, 'you never offered it to us at such a price.'

"At $12.50 an acre appraisalment, these people can have the use of the land for twenty-one years on the payment of 8 per cent a year. This is practically $1 an acre. They can readily make this out of the land and if they do not find the venture a profitable one, they can throw up the land and will not have to pay any additional money."

Mrs. Silva Wounded

SHOT IN THE FOOT WHILE GUNNING FOR CHICKENS—WOUND MAY PROVE SERIOUS.

By good luck Mrs. Joe Silva, wife of the well known old Portuguese of Kaneohe, escaped death by shooting yesterday. As it is she suffered an injury which may result in the loss of her foot and possibly of her leg if blood poisoning should set in.

Mrs. Silva went out yesterday morning with a native boy to shoot chickens a large number of them running wild among the guava bushes near their place. Apparently neither were used to firearms for they rested the gun in the crotch of a tree and were preparing for a shot when the gun fell and the charge was exploded. The shot struck Mrs. Silva in the left heel, ripping that portion of her foot completely off.

She was carried in to the house and her brother-in-law, Danson Kellett, telephoned into town to Dr. Judd who immediately drove over to the scene of the accident. He found the wound full of shot, grass and other foreign matter and after cleaning and dressing it gave instructions that she should be brought to the hospital today.

Mrs. Silva is a native woman. As she is strong and in good health there is a possibility that she may pull through without an amputation being necessary, but it is by no means certain that she will.

CONFERRING WITH GOVERNOR.

Governor Carter, George H. Fairchild and the Russian colonist representatives were in conference this afternoon commencing at 2 o'clock, regarding the coming of the Molokans. The Russian commissioners expect to return by the S. S. Manchuria tomorrow to San Francisco.

A MORNING MATINEE

"The Fires of St. John." The doors of the Opera House were opened at 10:15, but there had already gathered there quite an assemblage of ticket holders, and the scene about the Opera House soon became an animated one. It attracted attention and under the shade of the trees on the Judiciary grounds quite a crowd gathered to watch the novel and the passing show.

Carriage after carriage drove up to the entrance, while every street car brought a bevy of women in sumptuous dresses intent on seeing the much-talked-of tragedienne. There were many gay theater parties, the members meeting by appointment at the theatre door. The hour, the occasion, the bright, glorious sunshine, for the clouds and gloom of the earlier part of the day had long been dissipated, led to much animated conversation, and the theatre entrance for a quarter of an hour presented a most brilliant scene.

The theatre was crowded. Every seat was occupied. Women of course were greatly in the majority, and the display of millinery before the curtain rose was the most elaborate that has probably ever been seen in a theatre in Honolulu. Just before the curtain went up, there was a general removal of ladies' hats, and then the costumes, mostly of white and delicate organdies and soft summery goods, had a better chance to display themselves.

There were some men in the audience. A jury over in the Judiciary building had been given a recess of an hour while the lawyers argued some point of law, and most of the jurors found their way to the theatre hoping that more argument by the lawyers might give them a chance to see some more of the show. Also there were other men who were not on the jury.

Altogether it was a novel affair and a delightful one. No matter how the players with their art might affect those present none of them will soon forget the occasion.

The curtain rose at 10:40 o'clock and the play was on. The cast was as follows:
"Mr. Brauer".....Mr. Mario Mjeroni
"George von Horten".....Mr. A. Robson
"Pastor Haffner".....Mr. John Glendinning
"Paul".....Mr. George Friend
"Mrs. Brauer".....Clara Thompson
"Gertrude, the daughter".....J. Marbury
"Kate, servant".....Peg Bloodgood
"Marie, adopted daughter".....N. O'Neill

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

Colburn Appears As Lawyer

KAPIOLANI ESTATE MANAGER IS ALLOWED TO ADDRESS THE SUPREME COURT.

The Supreme Court this morning gave an oral decision affirming the decree of Judge Robinson in the matter of the estate of Margaret V. Carter, in which the circuit judge surcharged Mrs. Jessie Kaee, administratrix, with a number of sums aggregating about $800. During the hearing J. F. Colburn was allowed to address the court in the capacity of representative of Mrs. Kaee, for whom no counsel appeared.

Judge Robinson's decree was in sustaining a report of W. R. Sims as master. Deputy Attorney General Fleming appeared for the heirs who were supporting the report, and argued the case. There was no attorney for the other side, and Colburn asked to be allowed to speak. The court agreed to hear him. He made a statement explaining the expenditures which were objected to and claiming that they were proper and legitimate.

After a brief consultation Chief Justice Frear announced a decision affirming the decree of the circuit judge, sustaining the master's report with all its surcharges.

HENRY'S BAD NEWS

High Sheriff Henry has received a letter telling of the death of his mother, in Lewiston, Maine. She died on September 14, but as he was thought by his relatives to be about leaving here at that time for a visit home, no letter was immediately sent. Henry had hoped to be able to make the trip this fall, but has been prevented, and the funeral was delayed some time in the hope that he would appear.

MANCHURIA CARRIES WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

BIG PACIFIC MAIL LINER ARRIVES IN PORT TODAY FROM THE ORIENT.

After the roughest voyage in her career the S. S. Manchuria arrived from Yokohama this morning. The vessel had a large number of Japanese steerage passengers for Honolulu and considerable time was required in which to pass quarantine. She left Yokohama November 19 and according to the report by Purser Winslow, "the vessel experienced very rough weather, the wind and sea being from the south-east. Captain Saunders says in his experience of fifteen years crossing the Pacific, he never saw such rough weather and never to continue for such a length of time—nine days. Nevertheless the good ship stuck her nose in to it and made the trip from Yokohama to Honolulu in 9 days and 10 hours."

The vessel has for this port 2,054 tons and 25 feet recapitulated as follows: Merchandise, 2577 pkgs.; matting, 223 pkgs.; bamboo ware, 49 pkgs.; oil, 104 pkgs.; tea, 113 pkgs.; wine, 100 pkgs.; vinegar, 79 pkgs.; beans, 731 pkgs.; rice, 7,777 pkgs.; gunnies, 977 pkgs.; medicine, 61 pkgs.; sea weed, 10 pkgs.; curios, 258 pkgs.; canned goods, 782 pkgs.; soy, 757 pkgs.; sake, 1540 pkgs.; peanuts, 50 pkgs.; provisions, 3186 pkgs.; parcels, 5 pkgs.; total, 26,966 pkgs.

Among the many passengers of prominence are the following for Honolulu: Dr. C. P. Page, U. S. N., and wife, who are to take a transport at Honolulu for Guam where he occupies the position as chief surgeon of the navy.

The vessel is scheduled to depart for San Francisco at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning from the Hackfeld wharf. She will take a large crowd of passengers from Honolulu.

The Manchuria was very deep in the water and she was brought into the harbor with great care by Captain Macaulay, the pilot. Several times it looked as if she had gotten on a mud bank but she was docked without any mishap.

SONOMA IS IN ON TIME

ward to trips to the beach and dips in the surf instead of which it is a case of grease paint and powder.

Miss O'Neill looked the picture of blooming health as she came down the gangway and was greeted by old friends.

"We have had a fine trip and a successful one," she said to the Star "but it's always good to get back to Honolulu. Of course it is a good deal of a rush to play this morning at half past ten but then I am glad to have the opportunity and I don't mind confessing that I am more than 'attered with the kindness which has prompted the Honolulu people to bury out the house for a matinee time, but of the usual hour. We'll do it the best we can."

The passenger for Honolulu were Andrew Morris, Mrs. J. H. Richards, F. G. Robson and W. F. Trimble. Mrs. Richards who was met at the wharf by her son Theodore Richards, has been on a visit to Australia.

F. G. Robson is in advance of the V. J. Robinson Jubilee Singers who are closing a successful tour in the Colonies and will be here for a week's engagement.

MINISTER GRISCOM ON CONDITIONS IN THE FAR EAST

United States is very cordial. Some of the Japanese were disappointed at the terms of peace and such expression was given by mobs in Tokio and several other cities but now that the disappointment has worn away, I think that the people are very grateful to President Roosevelt for his efforts in bringing about peace.

"While I can not speak officially on the subject I know that the Japanese government has been making every effort to check wholesale immigration to the United States and has placed a careful restriction on the number of Japanese who can leave Japan for the United States. This is done for the purpose of avoiding any resentment that might arise on the part of the people in America against any extensive number of Japanese coming into the country. I think that the Japanese government is determined to avoid every possible chance of friction on this score. No, I cannot state anything directly affecting immigration of Japanese to the Hawaiian Islands.

"Indeed Japan will have such a field for exploitation in Korea that the tendency of immigration will be in that direction rather than this one.

"I talked with Admiral Togo several days before my departure and he informed me that he would in all likelihood, visit the United States with a fleet next autumn. He will go out by the Suez Canal the idea being of course to visit England first and repay the recent visit made to Japan by the English fleet. He may then go across the Atlantic to the United States. He did not state whether on his return trip, he would go by way of Cape Horn or not, neither did he say whether he would visit the Hawaiian Islands.

"Marshal Oyama was to leave the front on November 29 on his way home where he will make his triumphal entry.

"I can not state anything positively regarding the boycott by the Chinese against American goods. The Chinese in Yokohama and Nagasaki were forced into the boycott by others but that part of the boycott has already subsided. The boycott in China seems to be due to the resentment that the Chinese felt over the treatment they had received from the United States in the matter of exclusion. I have heard that the Japanese were accused of being the instigators of the boycott but I know nothing of the truth of such report."

MAIL DUE THURSDAY.

The S. S. Sierra is due Thursday from San Francisco with six days later mail from the mainland.
